POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL '06

Powderpuff football games are an annual tradition in many high schools and universities in the U.S and Canada. A powderpuff football game reverses gender roles. So while Senior and Junior girls go head to head playing football, guys are cheering on the sidelines.It all began as a way to draw Juniors and Seniors away from their separate lives and back to campus to join into an event together.

DONATE BLOOD!

For the 2006-2007 school year, Student Council purchased two new benches to be placed in the front of the building, three monitors that scroll school announcements, and built a 12 by 12 storage shed for dance and assembly supplies. Student Council participated and held four blood drives this school year. Student Council meets on a regular basis every Thursday at lunch.

Mr. Dalton's 2006/2007 Building Trades class finished Carroltton High School's tenth house. They made the entire house from the foundation up. The only thing the building trades students didn't do was the plumbing and the electric. Mr. Dalton said " This was a great class. These thirteen students put a lot of extra time to get the house done before the school year was over. They showed a lot of pride in their work."

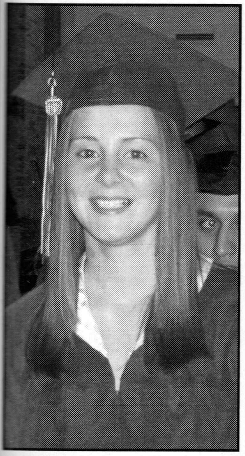
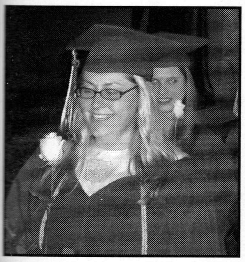
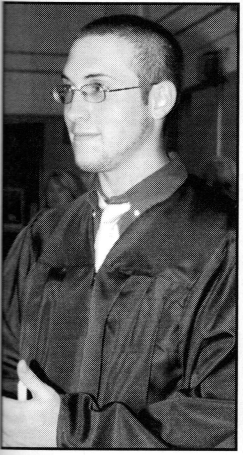
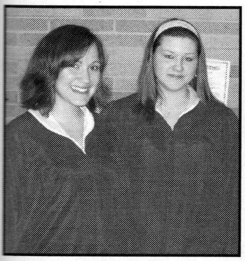
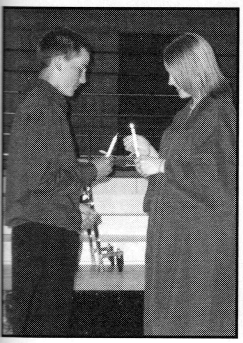
Senior Letter

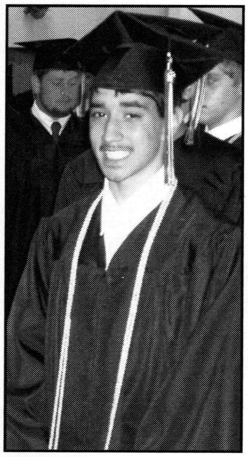


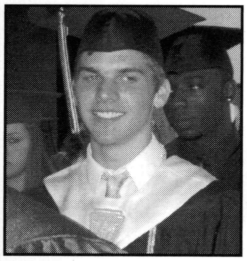


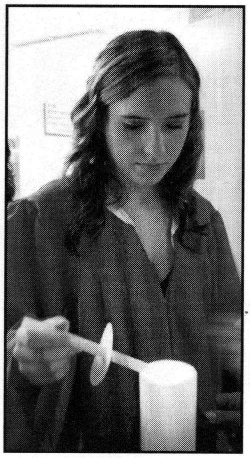


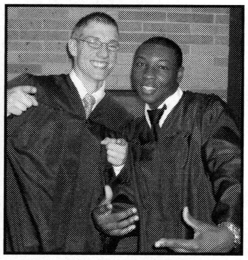


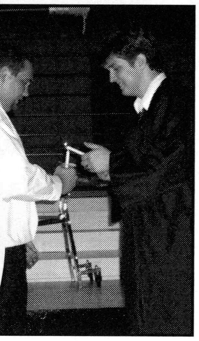












To The Class of 2007:

When I came to Carrollton you were just starting 6th grade at the middle school. I watched you participate in Academic Track, music, sports, Mock Rock, Homecoming week, class competitions, and several school plays. Then at the end of your 8th grade year, we took a trip to Washington D.C. together. Through all of these experiences, I had the chance to make many great memories with you. As you received your certificates at the 8th grade dinner dance, it was a sad day for me to see you leave the middle school, because I knew I would miss each of you.

Then you went through a transformation and became confident young men and women as you moved up to the high school. Who knew then, that I would have the privilege of granting you a diploma four years later? I was so proud to see you walk across the stage this year, as I knew each one of you had grown into adulthood right before my eyes. Each one of you has played a significant role as leaders in the class of 2007, and your class will be a hard act to follow.

As you leave Carrollton to head into careers, college or the military, I hope you will always remember your Cavalier heritage. You have made your parents and community vey proud of your accomplishments thus far, and we are hoping that as alumni of CHS, you will find a way to give somthing back to those students who follow behind you.

Congratulations to the Class of 2007!

A song of life and dreams and wisdom, a call to adventures on a path that's uniquely yours...
Take time to listen to the song of your soul and see where it leads you.
